JOHN AND MARSHA
Stan Freberg

This song consists of a woman's voice calling "John" and a man's voice calling "Marsha". The intonation, emphasis, pronunciation, and other characteristics of the voices tell a story, starting with a young couple's love, going through quarrels, making-up, etc. and finishing with the voices of a very elderly couple. A very imaginative song, but the lyrics would just be

"John...Marsha...John...Marsha...John...Marsha..."
