Tryin' To Find The Right Melody

As I Sit And Stare Out At The Rain
Hopin' If I Get The Lyrics Just Right

Maybe I'll See You Again
Cause You Left Like The Seasons
And I Can't Find A Reason

Why You Won't Be Back Anymore
It's Lonely At Night
But I Keep Holdin' Tight

To The Dreams That We Both Had Before
And Every Note That I Play
Every Word On This Page
Is A Feelin' I'm Feelin' So Stong

I Never Thought My Reason For Livin'

Would Someday Be Gone, Ooh

It Was So Easy To Find

All The Chords And The Rhymes

Now Everythin's Comin' Out Wrong

Until You Come Back To Me

I'll Never Stop Writing This Song
Some People Say I'm Crazy To Stay

But How Could They Possibly Know

The Woman, The Child

How She Made Me Smile

Makes It So Hard To Let Go

What My Heart Keeps Sayin'

So I Keep On Playin'
The Memory Burns In My Mind
I Know That She's Gone And Life Should Go On
But The Melody Keeps Her Alive
And Every Note That I Play

I Never Thought My Reason For Livin'
Is A Feelin' I'm Feelin' So Stong
Would Someday Be Gone, Ooh

It Was So Easy To Find

All The Chords And The Rhymes

Now Everythin's Comin' Out Wrong

Until You Come Back To Me
I'll Never Stop Writing This Song
And Every Note That I Play

Is A Feelin' I'm Feelin' So Stong

I Never Thought My Reason For Livin'

Would Someday Be Gone, Ooh

It Was So Easy To Find

All The Chords And The Rhymes

Until You Come Back To Me
I'll Never Stop Writing This Song
Until You Come Back To Me

I'll Never Stop Writing This....

Song
Never Stop Writing
Oh Yeah
