Between suicides and all your dirty lies
Are you looking sad for girls
Are you looking bad for sympathy
Open your eyes

It's getting hard to say open your eyes
Needles haven't fixed anything
It's getting hard to say open your eyes
(open your eyes)

Is anybody waiting for me somewhere somehow
I feel like I'm alone
Is anybody waiting for me somewhere somehow
I feel like I'm alone
(Is there anybody home)
I feel like I'm alone
(Is there anybody home)

Love is a refuge with fears and doubts
It's the Jesus on your necklace
Sleepless hideouts
Love is a silence to your cry outs
The cheapest the fabulous

Between suicides and all your dirty lies
Are you looking sad for girls
Are you looking bad for sympathy
Is this goodbye

It's getting hard to say open your eyes
(It's getting hard to say)
I've been waiting here why don't you share
(open your eyes)
It's hard to believe guess you don't care
(it's hard to believe)
(open your eyes)

Love is a refuge with fears and doubts
It's the Jesus on your necklace
Sleepless hideouts
Love is a silence to your cry outs

The cheapest the fabulous

is anybody waiting for me somewhere somehow
I feel like I'm all alone (somewhere somehow)
is anybody waiting for me somewhere somehow
I feel like I'm all alone
(is there anybody home)
I feel like I'm all alone
(is there anybody home)

Love is a refuge (with fears and doubts)
It's the Jesus on your necklace
Love is a silence (love is a silence)
to your cry outs
The cheapest the fabulous
(to your cry outs)

Love is a refuge with fears and doubts
It's the Jesus on your necklace
Sleepless hideouts
Love is a silence to your cry outs
The cheapest the fabulous
(Is this Jesus on your necklace)

Between suicides and all your dirty lies
Are you looking sad for girls
Are you looking bad for sympathy
Open your eyes
