"Unafraid"

The morning comes
The waves wash over you
You've got the sun in your eyes
And an ocean waiting for you to cross
The first step
Takes the most faith
Walking on the water you can't help
But feel like you've been saved

When we begin
Our hope is all we have to carry us
You feel the weight
Up against you now you're pushing it

I've never been so close
I've never felt so unafraid
I've never been so close
I've never felt so unafraid

When you're alone
Surrounded by horizon
Time stretches out
For a newborn sun to shine on and on
And in the end
You will return to me
Following the path of the spirits
That have surrounded you

When we begin
Our hope is all we have to carry us
You feel the weight
Up against you now you're pushing it

I've never been so close
I've never felt so unafraid
I've never been so close
I've never felt so unafraid
