"Keep It Dark"

When you turned to face me I couldn't keep my hands from drifting
Back to the places that I know
In the right way, we were cold

Leave it for the right day
We'll come back, laugh at our mess.
The song sounds just fine, it's running in time
And I don't think anyone is ready to stop singing
tonight

I was replacing all of the truth, blaming our mood
You held no one high enough

I'll help you weather the mess of the flood

Leave it for the right day
We'll come back, laugh at our mess.
The song sounds just fine, it's running in time
And I don't think anyone is ready to stop singing
tonight

Was it the right time, the right way, are you happy?
When you are feeling so foreign, it's time to leave.
