The idea of settling down with an angel of death can consume us all;
And don't make me think of the consequences of dreaming large.

How content can you be with the way things are, is this the path you walk?
Well I see your future, you're going nowhere; and I can't help but smile.

Oh, how cruelty lies.
Oh, how cruelty lies within you

(Chorus)
And I know I failed, but at least I'll admit it.
Your false accusations have me contemplating, what
the fuck will you do next?
Your cold hands and jet black eyes have me
concerned, that your gonna stay forever. (stay forever)

I must destroy what I helped create.
A monster!

To be abused by an infestation of false hopes.
Breathing deep the sorrow and fortune of your mistakes.

The idea of settling down with the angel of death can consume us all. And don't make think of the consequences of dreaming large.

I will be the survivor.

(Chorus)
