If I failed it was for a purpose
I'll never look back on what I've done.
If I loved it was all a mistake.
Just add to it, a little fun.
If I fall I do it with passion in my heart.
For everything you have taken from me.
If I do I do it with a smile on.
All reason to live is gone.

[Chorus]

You think you can walk in here, and take everything I love?
You already took my heart, now take my soul.

Lets see if you can fake a smile.
With a barrel of a gun shoved in your mouth.
All your promises are fucking lies.
You killed my heart with a single shot.
And you shattered all my dreams just to see my face.
All reason to live is gone.

[Chorus]
