My heart is breaking and there's tears in my eyes
The heartaches you caused me has wrecked my young life

The love that you promised to me was untrue
All I have is a memory I can't forget about you

This lonesome old feeling keeps hanging around me
It reminds me of you and the love that we knew
I'll sit here alone there's no one beside me
With no love of my own now that you're gone

The nights are so lonely and you're still on my mind
I can't lose this memory of you now I find
So I'll go on hurting and thinking of you
This lonesome old feeling keeps making me blue
