whoa oh oh
whoa oh oh
chandelier..

now that we are face to face i wanna tell you i think you're from outta space if it sounds a little too wild if you got the time i'll stay to elaborate your nothing like the girls i used to date you even glow in the morning without your make-up i mean it, i'm not teasing it's the truth baby i just got to say brightest smile, i'd spot her from a thousand miles away lights my life up, i call her chandelier i see heaven when she looks at me in my darkest hour

she's the sweetest melody never disappear my shining chandelier chandelier..

one day we may turn grey but i'm sure it won't blow out the candle spark in my heart just like the stars they will forever play in the milky-way let's say you were ever to say you're not in love like you were back the days just the thought of you in my arms would keep the lights on there upstairs in my head

chandelier..

feel like a new born child when you hold me in your comfort

you shower me with joy your my favourite love lucky four leaf clover there's no starting over chandelier whoa oh oh
whoa oh oh
chandelier..

chandelier..

heart
