There's a line that needs to be crossed, it's been crossed
There's a path not many have walked, and that's okay
Whens it's all going to change, and save my life tonight
Lasting more than a lifetime, make me believe in you
And the ground is giving way and I know you know
I can see to outer space
Can you hear me?
Can you hear me?
We're not alone
Keep your eyes close to chance, my dear friends
Never be afraid of romance
Take courage and say hello, hello
Unearthing treasures you already know
And the ground is giving way and I know you know
I can see to outer space
Can you hear me?
Can you hear me?
Come along
Will you come along?
Oh the ground is giving way and I can see to outer space
The stars and skies and satellites are doorways into other times
Can you hear me?
Can you hear me?
Oh come along
Will you go
Would you come along?
