Iâ'm trying to be everyone
And begging for myslef
Carrying shame in bags
Acting like a fool
Who am I fooling here?
I've only fooled myself
Is there a cure for this?
Cause I'd risk everything
I have, cause I need a miracle, a miracle
One touch, takes my breath away
If I could escape this war
It burns me to my core
With shame upon my lips
Waiting for one kiss
What's if it's true here
It hurts to feel alive
Now But I don't care I don't care
Cause Iâ'd risk everthing
I have, cause I need a miracle, a miracle
One touch, takes my breath away
Iâ'd risk it all, cause I need a miracle I need a miracle
From you, oh from you
Take my breath away, please
Take my breath away, please
Take my breath away, please
Oh please Iâ'm begging you
Now!
Oh take it away.
Take it all away please
Iâ'd risk it all, Iâ'd risk it all you know
I'd risk it all, Iâ'd risk it all
For a miracle from you
