Worn out, wasted
Like a bird with broken wings
Sometimes grace reminds me
I don't get to be the king

But love it washes over
Love it pulls me closer
Love it changes everything

So everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe

Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful to me

Sweetly, You release me
From the weight of what I've done
The trigger trips the hammer
But the bullets never come

But love it washes over
Love it pulls me closer
Love it changes everything

So everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe

Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful

And love like a landslide
Like the wind
Spins around me, pulls me in
At it's unveiling, I begin

Everything is beautiful
Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe

Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful

Even when the tears are falling
I don't need a miracle to believe

Even in the crashing down
I can hear redemption calling
And everything is beautiful to me
