In the shadows I can hear Your voice singing to me
In the valley, I can hear Your heart
Reaching for me now
And I wait flooded with the strength of Your peace

You're my defender, the shield of my heart
You are my hiding place
When terror surrounds me You keep me from harm
You are my hiding place

In the darkness I can feel Your light, wrap around me
In my suffering, I can feel Your joy
Rising in me now
And I wait flooded with the strength of Your peace

Here before You, Jesus
In this place
Here before You now
Face to face

You're my defender, the shield of my heart
You are my hiding place
When terror surrounds me You keep me from harm
You are my hiding place

You're my defender the shield of my heart
You are my hiding place
When terror surrounds me You keep me from harm
You are my hiding place

Under the shelter of the most high
Will I be saved and will I abide?
