What could we bring that You ever need?
(That You ever need)
What could we do that's worthy of You?
(That's worthy of You)
What could we say that You have never heard?
Sung by angels, Heaven and earth

And the loveliest song
Is the song on the lips of the broken and this is
The loveliest sound when Your children cry out
We were lost now we're found
The loveliest sound to You is the sound we're making
now

Merciful one there's nothing we've done
(Nothing we've done)
To ever deserve to be heard
(To be heard)
But You bend Your ear to the sound of our voice
So let it rise up above every noise
Now let it rise up above every noise

And the loveliest song
Is the song on the lips of the broken and this is
The loveliest sound when Your children cry out
We were lost now we're found
The loveliest sound to You is the sound we're making
Hey, yeah

Oh, who are we that You look on us?
Our offering is a song of love
How can it be You're the light in us?
In what we bring 'cause it's not enough

Oh, who are we that You look on us?
When our offering is a song of love
How can it be You're a light in us?
In what we bring 'cause it's not enough
No, it's not enough

The loveliest sound

(Crying out, we're crying out, you're children cry for you)
The loveliest sound
(The loveliest, the loveliest, the loveliest sound)

Know the loveliest song
Is the song on the lips of the broken and this is
The loveliest sound when Your children cry out
We were lost now we're found

The loveliest song
Is the song on the lips of the broken and this is
The loveliest sound when Your children cry out
We were lost now we're found
The loveliest sound to You is the sound we're making
It's the sound You're longing for
