Im growing up to be nothing but a fatherless

child/

And if you still locked up don't start callin me now/

I respect the fact that you tried and you tried/

But you promised ya oldest son that you'd try until you died/

In and out of jail I'm wondering if pop cares/

And I got some questions to ask but you not here/

I hope that when you start falling god speak to you/

I'm more of a father to Lateef than
you/

Don't get me wrong I still got love/

Im trying to stay outta trouble but yet I still got drugs/

See if you was here I wouldn't have to sell/

Thanx to mom and my man Dee Bee, see they here to tell me to not grab
the L/

chorus-All my life I aint never had nothing but a family, alot of niggas that envied, and a long knife/All my life I aint never had nothing but a mother, a lil sister, and a lil brother/All my life I've been tryin to get a deal, niggas hatin on me hard and they gotta be killed/All my life I aint never had nothin, I never had nothin in my life/

I was six the first time I held a gat/

Didn't know what to do so I put it right back/

Couple years back I was more than broke/Begging my moms to buy me a sherlin coat/Got caught outside 3 in the morning/
Smoking stoges riding bikes got my as beat till
I was yawning/
Even though my moms can't stand me/
I'm still trying to make her proud like the cartoon family/
Growing up in the Cuse is too much work/
Watchin my man die in the street is too much hurt/
So I never felt nothin but pain/
And if I don't continue spitting flames than I guess nothing will change/Holla
