Captain Singh, signing off the world
Before I'm off this place
Here in outer space
Captain Singh, signing off the world
Before I'm off this place
Here in outer space.

(Oh)
This is Captain Singh, aboard the shuttle
Our signal 's fading as I pass the moon
Could you tell my wife that I love her
I fear that I'll be gone soon
I'm sitting on the cockpit floor
A one-way voyage to the stars
And I know that I won't be coming home again

I used to scream to the sky "I'm coming"
And it's my ode to the stars, I'm coming for you

Captain Singh, signing off the world
Before I'm off this place
Here in outer space
Captain Singh, signing off the world
Before I'm off this place
Here in outer space.

(Oh)
Well the sight from here is astounding
I wish I had someone to share the view
Because I'll die alone above my planet
I've got one chance for saving you
I can see the asteroid now
Heading toward our atmosphere
And when I hit I know
I've got one chance to save the blue

For my beautiful wife, I love you
And it's my ode to the stars, I'm coming for you

Captain Singh, signing off the world
Before my shuttle hits

Can you still hear me?
This is Captain Singh, signing off the world
Impact is imminent
This is for the beautiful blue

I'm entering its gravity
I can see the flames alight my ship
And this is it; it's Captain Singh
I can see that I'm about to hit
Ã¢â€little blue, this one's for youÃ¢â€

(Oh)
