I'm centered and I'm focused now,
The keys to keep what I'm about,
To save part of this song to sing for me. (oh)
The picture, the scene, pursue the dream,
To help the race to float through space.
When and how I find the way for all of the above.

All criticism 's cast aside
Like a useless blanket
under warm twilight.
When down is left and up is right,
Both wet and dry,
is an ocean sand's delight.

Inner-outer space. (space)
I can have them both.
Inner-outer space. (space)
I will take it all.

I'm driven and I'm confident
To paint life rich with warm sunsets
And watch rise to an angular moon
That I've sketched in the sand.
Sand grips my arm and salts my threads,
But my mind 's afloat in a thoughtful, cloudy bed.
To save an inner-outer space for us,
Who wished more.

I question possibility
To touch shrub and star, ocean and beach.
Although down is left, and up is right.
I stretch to find that it's within my reach.

Inner-Outer Space (space).
I can have them both
Inner-Outer Space (space).
I will take it all.

And then I didn't have to go another way.
Instead I chose an inner-outer space.

Inner-Outer Space (space).

I can have them both
Inner-Outer Space (space).
I will take it all.
