You call yourself American man,
But your pocket 's full of hell.
I call myself a warrior
I can see that you're an arrogant man,
And I'll fight until you fall.
I call myself a warrior, with soul.

Light a fire, but douse the flame.
Shoot a heart in the name ofÃ¢â€Œ!
Smile to hide a lying face.
I'll fight for change, until I defeat you.

You call yourself American man,
But your pocket 's full of hell.
I call myself a warrior
I can see that you're an arrogant man,
And I'll fight until you fall.
I call myself a warrior, with soul.

You light a fire,
But douse the flame.
Light a fire,
I'll fight for change.

I can see that you're an arrogant man,
Well, I call myself a warrior man.
