"Mic The Mic"

So many now your mouth's dry
So I'll leave them at the door
And did you mic the mic
I can hear it through the floor

I missed it and got rattled
So was your reception what you liked
The distance when you travel
Count on me to make it right

So I counted it to fill my
To fill my empty heart I need
So could you RSVP
And put my name in you'll see
That this is a crime, this is an emergency
You let me down, this joke kills
It's on me

I've made my mistakes, well that's what you say
I've made my mistakes, don't count them always
