After all
You really stink it up
And the lies that you tell
I really think that you know

Left your girl and you left your family too
Things that you're never sure about
Just know that there's one thing I'll get through

You've got it all worked out
I wish you'd shut your mouth

After all
You really like just to never tell

We really think that you'll burn in hell
I really think that you know

Things that you're never sure about
Just know that there's one thing I'll get through

You've got it all worked out
I wish you'd shut your mouth

You've got it all worked out
I wish you'd shut your mouth
