Good friends leave
I better not think
About love and war
No matter to me

Everyone you love
And everyone who laughs

It doesn't breathe
The music machine
And at a yearly cost
Made me a half weak

And everyone you love
And everyone who laughs

Everyone you love
Everyone who laughs
And this I don't need

Everyone you love
And everyone who laughs

Everyone you love
And everyone who laughs
And this I don't need

And this I don't need
And this I don't need
And this I don't need
And this I don't need

And this I don't need
And this I don't need
And this I don't need
And this I don't need
And this I don't need
