Monday awaken by the sun ray
Everybody's working
But I'm just enjoying
The fact to be alone
Singing on my own ain't no Parents to remind me
It's time to leave the nest
It's time to build a perfect life
You tried so hard to be against Me when I haven't done
Anything wrong
I suggest that you Leave me
Singing on my own with no girlfriend
To remind me It's time to wish the best it's time To think about the

Wedding when the youth life is ending
We're gonna have some children
Who knows maybe a dog and a car
Something tells me that you're waiting
For your man to change
What can I do for you

It's never gonna be the same
Can't hang around again
But I won't complain I may ask you
To leave me Singing on my own, with nobody To remind me
It's time to get along
it's time to think about the
Wedding when the youth life is ending
We're gonna have some children
Who knows maybe a dog and a car
Something tells me that you're waiting
For your man to change

What can I do for you

I cant' decide where or when

I'll see you again

It's been such a long time girl

But I know I'm coming thru you

I know I'm ready for the day
