Don't, didn't I know how we came to be?
Ask me if I care
You wanna have what I got
Just pick yourself up off the ground
Do you really care?

It doesn't take much out of you
You just never tried
Because we care so much for you
You just have to change your mind

Don't, didn't I know what you said to me?
Couldn't bear to hear
Your point of view and
Your claim to your own helplessness
Do you really care?

It doesn't take much out of you
You just never tried
Because we care so much for you
You just have to change your

It doesn't take much out of you
I'd like to think that I need you
