i'm still feeling confusion but ive decided youre not good enough you have expired, i can see the tired in your eyes so pack up, because you failed to be what you said to be i dont need you wasting all my time i will be pacified no longer the sparkle's gone from your eyes i will be beautified and stronger than you ever were private bell ringing, to justify you can hardly paint your picture i'm strong, may not be fooled, just to think we disagree on too many things look me in the eye, you think your in the right? there's no slap on the wrist this time

the sparkle's gone from your eyes
(was it ever?)

thinking so long but this time, I see your true colors have doubts with grey and white nothing too so bright
the light, it vibrates
inside your eyes

the sparkle's gone from your eyes
than you ever were
