You always wanted songs of celebration
On how to seize the day
But you never think
That I'd be coming your way

List of my demands
I don't want to make you sad
For the sake of both of us I stand
This time I can't

Leave me out this time
You might fall down this time
You know and I might even find you

You can't give me what's mine
I need this for myself
And right now you're not helping
So now we're through

I know it's not what I said that matters
It's what I do, so what does that say
When I do anything for you
Guess we're back to square one
Feels like it always ends this way

When moment you
Raised my patience
The next I'm too slow
And you're sure to let me

You might fall down this time
You know and I might even find you
You can't give me what's mine

I need this for myself
And right now you're not helping
So now we're through
So now we're

Leave me out this time
Leave me out this time
Leave me out this time
