Man is declining, man is dying out
Generation of despair
Man has no future, man is crying out
Echoes in the empty air

Mother Nature's striking back
Protecting her domain
The last generation fades away

We're the generation of despair

But we must not give up hope
For man can be revived
It's alive, she's alive we're alive!

Man surrenders, man is giving in
Our world is breaking down
Man has no tomorrow, man has died within
This is our final hour

Mother Nature's changing course
Preserving her own home
The last generation on its own

We're the generation of despair

But we can't give in to failure
Man can still survive
It's alive, she's alive we're alive!

Mother Nature's striking back
Protecting her domain
The last generation fades away

We're the generation of despair

But we must not give up hope
For man can be revived
It's alive, she's alive we're alive!

wW're the generation of despair

It's alive, she's alive we're alive!
It's alive, she's alive we're alive!

We're the generation of despair

Mother Nature's changing course
Preserving her own home
The last generation on its own

We're the generation of despair

But we can't give in to failure
Man can still survive
It's alive, she's alive we're alive!
