You can ride my place out
Of the life you make
And all the things that mattered
When you knew my face

Cross off all the ways I failed you
'Cause I failed you
But I'm still in your blood
You're still in my blood

A time when all our mistakes
Made sense, you needed it
A time when all the lying
Sympathized with sin

All this sabotage you bring
Well, I can't take it
'Cause I just want you back
I just want you back

Temporary battles
Can take up half your life
How you dig your bed, well
It'll help you sleep at night

Forgiveness like a blanket
That you want to forget
But you still crumble at my name
You still crumble at my name

A time when all our mistakes
Made sense, you needed it
A time when all the lying
Sympathized with sin

All this sabotage you bring
Well, I can't take it
'Cause I just want you back
I just want you back
