was always late you never afraid that we could be falling all our friends would say that maybe we should wait but they can't see what's coming and to this day when everything breaks you are the anchor that holds me and that is why we'll always make it how i know your face

all the ways you move
you come in
i can read you, you're my favorite book all the things you say
the way you shift your eyes i never knew there was someone to make me come alive

when the days are long and the thunder with the storm can always get me crying well you can make my bed, i'll fall into it shattered but not lonely cause i never knew a home until i found your hands and when i'm weathered you come to me you're my best friend

and when we're making love i'd give everything up for your touch

and when you go to work all the day i wait for you to come home and we can have time in our little place our little place
