Both naked now
Touching you as little
As this bed allows
Staring at the car lights
Crawl across the floor
You're finished for the evening
But I'm wanting more

Both wide awake
Trying not to breathe for the other's sake
I'm not sure how much more of this
We're supposed to take
Before we kill each other

I feel violent for you, lover
I feel violent for you, lover
Never ever touch another
I feel violent for you, lover

Both naked now
Touching you as little as this single bed allows
Staring at the car lights
Crawl across my bedroom floor
The city is a callgirl
Mother nature is a whore

I feel violent for you, lover
I'm violent for you, lover
Never ever trust another
I feel violent for you

Touch me one more time
And I will have to touch you
I work in the diamond mines
We dig for things like you

When the morning comes
Will you become one love
Put your eyes out with my thumbs
Suffocate you with the bed covers
I'll let you take me first

Then I'll be taking over
Take it deep inside me baby
Keep your body here 'til summer

Violent for you, lover
Violent for you, lover
Never ever touch another
Violent for you,

You finish me
And now I know that this is how love's supposed to be
I tortured you
And in return you tortured me
So if you have a lover love them violently
Violently

I'm violent for you, lover

I'm violent for you, lover
Never ever trust another
I'm violent
For you
