Put your fingers to your lips you make me think of something I can't say it's been a long to feel this you made me dream of something I won't say

Why are you all I want
I didn't ask for this Somehow you're all that I know
now I know this is bliss

Have I been waiting to feel this Only since forever
I won't stay alone
Are you waiting to show me brighter weather or am I wrong again

Why are you all I want
I didn't ask for this
somehow you're all that I know
now I know this is bliss
why are you all that I need
looking for you mind to read
now all I need is some bliss

tell me tell me why

Why are you all I want
I didn't ask for this
somehow you're all that I know
