when will I get over the idea that everyone has to love me you know I don't love everyone myself so why should all the world treat me differently it's nothing new I know you've felt it still this rings true I'm nothing if not just a servant to an outside opinion I can't tell you what you think doesn't matter to me why can't I just be an island on the ocean I need something from the outside for the inside of me somedays I feel I can take the world and put it on my shoulders for all eternity but even in this lack of gravity I still need someone to just to stand there with me
