She only wants what she cannot have,
but if I let her know that she can't have me will she want me?

I always was one of those myself you know the greatest one you can ever have is the one who gets away

If what you want it comes your way will you just turn away you might want someone who will someday want you too you want I come your way
will you just turn away
will someday want you

Maybe it's just that you can't open up cause you've been hurt before and you'd rather starve then feel that more I never was one of those myself but it's worth the risk just to feel something from someone

I refuse to believe
You don't feel this
You don't need me

I really believe
You feel this
I need you

I feel some warmth slipping out of you it's like you know it's there but you won't let it through can't you see that?
I'll do my best to draw it out of you but this only works if you want it too do you see that?
