"Who Knew"

Are you thinking of me
Like I think of you
I remember something
From our talk at two

This was the nice before the blue moon
Early morning July 31st
Who knew our sky was red
Early morning came too soon

I've been thinking of you
Much more than I should
I never imagined
Words to feel so good

Who knew this was the nice before the blue moon
Early morning July 31st
Who knew our sky was red
Early morning came too soon

When we began
Seems the night would never end
