"Tired Of Life"

Tired of always looking for pills
Tired of committing so many sins
Tired of lying to myself and everyone else Tired of always thinking about drugs Tired of following in the same damn steps as my fucking dad
Tired of coming down and puking up blood Tired of drowning in my sorrow when I don't even know what it is
Tired of promising myself it will be different tomorrow Tired of looking at that cross just to remind me that I'm lost
Tired of being alone
Tired of not being able to have a normal father and son conversation
Tired of people knowing me by the guy who has done went 2 far Tired of struggling to go to bed every night high and wired
Tired of always trying to live my life by a song Tired of having the same goddamn thoughts as my dad
Tired of not knowing the real me
Tired of not knowing if this is the real me Tired of always hearing from people how I've fucked up Tired of getting high alone Tired of drugs being frowned upon Tired of not being able to listen to music unless their singing about drugs
Tired of being addicted
Tired of being trapped
Tired of not caring if I'll even be alive 2morrow Tired of writing fucking crazy shit like this Tired of not being normal
I'm TIRED OF LIFE
