She just wept
Like I could not ignore
How can I ask
When my heart's on the floor?

She just wept
Till her eyes became sore
I knew who she was
But I don't anymore
Ohh, oh
Ho, ho
Ohh, oh

She just cried
To the ruins of time
That kept us apart
We were doin' just fine

She just wept
She was put to the test
Those that she loved
She had learned to detest

Daddy I've got nothin' left
My life is good
My love's a mess
What can I do
That's for the best?

My life is good
My love's a mess
What can I do
That's for the best?
