"Void"

Enter the void
Strayin' away in this room
Endless search for the punch
That will break the shell

I will pray no more
Words are not the cure
I will not listen
And I'll not crawl for sure

Can't bend the iron
I could save myself
Constant fear to be weak
Is strong enough to prevent my own decay

I will pray no more
Words are not the cure

I will not listen
And I'll not crawl for you

Unbending unrest, always blinding the demon
I strain so hard to not hurt what I have chosen
And rebuild the things I still believe in Tasted my fray, I'm afraid, take my way, makes me fake

Felt this Too late
Let me
Suffocate
Kept this
In my case
