"Eye for and eye"

So, I sit here thinking,
Remembering "I love you's,"
Well, I'm taking them all back,
Because these cold January nights,
Leave me feeling hollow inside.
I bet you think it's funny now,
So, I'm sorry for ever letting you into my life,
Now all that's left is hate.

This world is better without you,
An eye for an eye.
A deserving fate for you,
And these bitter words 'cause your lies mean nothing anymore.

So, I turn to friends for strength,
I still search for understanding,
I search for something right,
'Cause these 16-hour drives,
Have me going crazy inside.
My heart dies, I cry.

(And all your bitter words,
and all your lies mean nothing anymore.)
