In a line of fire I stand and wait for you
I can't hold out for too long
Searchin' every part of me for a sign
I'm in the middle of a storm

I keep hopin', keep on dreamin'
Somehow you'll get through to me

So I reach across the silence, in the air
I keep hopin' for a sound
Just a word or two is all I need
How can I bring you back around

Can you hear me? Can I touch you?
Show me the way to your heart

Send a message
Send me a message tonight
Send a message
In my dreams you are never out of sight
Send a message
Let me stand in your light, just send me a message

In my dark and lonely night I look for you
Won't you save me from myself?
When my senses melt away you will be here
And I won't need nobody else

I can't hold back, I won't fight it
Roll back this stone from my heart

Send a message
Send me a message tonight
Send a message
In my dreams you are never out of sight
Send a message
Let me stand in your light, just send me a message

(Everything you are)
Everything you are
(Means everything to me)
Means everything to me

(I will wait for you)
I will wait
(Time is all we need)
Is all we need

I keep hopin', keep on dreamin'
Somehow you'll get to to me

Send a message
Send me a message tonight
Send a message
In my dreams you are never out of sight
Send a message
Let me stand in your light, just send me a message

(Send a, send a, send a, send a, send a, send a)
I'm ready, I am ready
(Send a, send a)
Send me a, me a
(Send a, send a)
