Can I ever see you again, I loved the first time
But the second seems so far away,
Like it will never return.
I'll make excuses say what you want to hear.
Just invite me over and I promise I will be right
There. Yea I will be there soon

Would you like a glass of wine or maybe like to
Talk, We can start up where we left off
Just a couple of nights before

[Chorus]

We're all connected now, These two lovers
Hands in a warm and close embrace, We're all
Connected now

We'll sit on the couch holding hands
Do what you want to do
Yea whatever your plans,
And I'll be making plans with you.
Maybe your parents will come in,
You can introduce me, You can tell them
I am your new found friend,
We won't even have to pretend

Would you like a glass of wine or maybe like to
Talk, We can start up where we left off
Just a couple of nights before.

[Chorus]

When you fessed up, I fessed up with you
When you stood up, I stood along with you
And you know it's not easy being with you

But we're all connected now, There's two lovers
Hands in this warm and close embrace, We're all Connected now. These two lovers hands in this Warm and close embrace

We're all connected now (x4)
