

Feelers, The "Fallout shelter"

I turn a knife into the ground to let me in
I hope the ground will open up and let me in
I want the world to just let me win,

[Chorus]

Fallout shelter all the love in the world
That keeps us in.
Imagine Lennon, if he was not the only one,
No you're not the only one

Why do I ask these questions
When I know those lies?
Why don't I take the thorn out of your side?
Why can't I see the truth behind the lies? Why?

[Chorus]

Why can't I walk the streets and feel I'm safe?
Why can't I speak my mind without the grief?
Why do I have to hide behind my beliefs?

[Chorus]
