I've never felt so guiltily
And it's never felt so right
I've never been a victim before
And I've never been so jealous
Of the fool on the floor
I've managed just to drag him home
I feel pleasantly raw
Oh, little world do you want to play?
Oh, sexy girl do you think you'll stay?
This crazy world, all my skies gone grey
Oh, pretty girl, please don't melt away
Well I've never witnessed change
Though I always thought I would
I've never been deranged
Though you always thought I was
I've never felt like killing
Cause I never gave a shit
I've never been a victim before
I guess you thought I was him
Well I'm not him
Oh little world do you want to play?
Oh sexy girl do you think you'll stay?
This crazy world, all my skies gone grey
Oh pretty girl please don't melt away
I'll bend and break cause I'm so fragile
Oh little world do you want to play?
Oh sexy girl do you think you'll stay?
This crazy world, all my skies gone grey
Oh pretty girl, please don't melt away
Lightning glances penetrate me
I'd better say my prayers
I'll take my chances in the wind
We'll see who really cares
I've never been a victim
Though you might disagree
I feel now, I'm finally free.
