shoot out the lights
and then you said,
"we've stayed high too long here in the sky" you shoot out the lights i had to see the big star rising there's nothing to fear 'cause nothing can bring us down now that we've made it here nothing to fear nothing but the big star rising work my fingers to the bone so we could get this high but we still can't fly

i feel like coming down you're still, still hanging around my feet back on the ground so i can runaway
i wanna runaway
so i can runaway

nothing for free
my hands will reach up so high to bring you down with me
nothing for free
i wanna see the big star rising

i don't mind the heat
not even your flames will burn as long as i can see

i wanna runaway

i wanna runaway.
