"When You're Young And In Love"

When you're young & in love (so in love)
The whole world seems to know
Love is like a candle light
Always giving off a glow

When you're young & in love (so in love)
All your troubles pass on by
There is nothing in this whole wide world
That could ever make you cry

When you're in love, you walk in the clouds
The night time turns to day
& the dark clouds that cover the sky
They just seem to float away

(repeat verse 1)

The whole world seems to know
When you're young & in love
