Not much to do around this town till I met you
It used to be the days would pass so quickly
Now time stands still
And every week we'd chill and watch MTV

Packing bowl after bowl
No self control
Then we'd feel each other up
And one thing would lead to another

I made so many mistakes that my body aches
This life ain't easy
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me like that

Baby I fought back
Believe me it's not like you need me
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me

Can't blame each other for this mess
You can't blame the pill, now time stands still
And every moment that was ours
Is now the pounding of our hearts

And I can't breathe
I'm claustrophobic now
I saw you out in Regency
And you didn't notice me

I made so many mistakes that my body aches
This life ain't easy
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me like that

And baby I fought back
Believe me it's not like you need me
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me

And I remember the sky when we were both so high
And nothing else mattered

I remember your sign the same as mine
Electric flow Scorpios

If I could take it back right now
I wish that I had never met you
I don't believe in love but baby something there
Something there, some thing there was real

I made so many mistakes that my body aches
This life ain't easy
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you goin' leave me like that

Baby I fought back
Believe me it's not like you need me
Keep diggin' holes, let the drama unfold
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me
Keep thinkin' you gon' leave me

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
