Thou shall not
Thou shall not want
Thou shalt not
Thou shalt not want
Any or all that you give so kindly

Thou shalt not
Thou shalt not break
Thou shalt not break
Any or all that you need so badly

But in the morning there's a holy dove
And it comes breaking through the trees
You're the one I love, but I'll kill all that I see

I just want my arsenic and clover
No matter what the heathens say
I want arsenic and

Thou shalt not
Thou shalt not fear
Thou shalt not
Thou shalt not fear
Any or all that you feed so slowly

'Cause in the morning there's a holy love
And it comes breaking through the trees
You're the one I love but I'll kill all that I see

I just want my arsenic and clover
No matter what the heathens say
I want my arsenic and

I just want my arsenic and clover
Don't matter what the heathens say
