I come from the land of the shaming
Where the innocent are taken to the pavement
Won't somebody just tell them
Won't somebody oh, won't somebody oh oh oh oh woah...

Won't you please look after my children
Are the words from the mouth of the women
Some are gettin' all the wood to get the fire laid,
Some are pickin' up the pieces of their last days
Won't somebody oh

So we're calling all the crows, they coming up slow
It's gonna be a showdown said the rebel to the revolutionary come with me
If you feel like you are witnessing a movement
Then get up girl and let them know you're free

I come from the land of the shaming
Where the world is looking up you know it's changing Won't somebody just tell them, won't some body oh,
I want somebody

So we're calling all the crows, they coming up slow
It's gonna be a showdown,
said the rebel to the revolutionary come with me
If you feel like you are witnessing a movement
Then get up girl and let them know you're free

Said the rebel to the rebel I will go if you come with me
I'm tired of living in this fable, a real sky I long to see
The journey must continue, it does not start or end here
For the river wide but with all of us we can reach from side to side
Ande it is here that we must hold so dear

We calling all the crows they comin' up slow
It's gonna be a show down,
said the rebel to the revolutionary come with me
And if you feel like you are witnessing a movement

Then get up girl and let them know you're free
It's just a murder of crows comin' up slow
It's gonna be a show down,
said the rebel to the revolutionary follow me

And if you feel like you are witnessing a movement
Then get up girl and let them know you're free
Get up girl and let them know you're free
Got to get up girl and girl let them know you're free
