You been hit with another blow but still you give love
And you set our souls on fire
You got your instant karma You're the son of a fisherman farmer, born to live, live free or die

You look around your room one last time
You can hear the car running from the hall You assure us today is another good day And tomorrow you will love us all

'Cause you can't have anything if you don't have anything
God I feel just fine, whoa even if your bleeding never stop believing that we all live free or die

I'm not being too self-conscious, am I?
You don't think I'm being too self-conscious do you?
Well I'm up and I'm going west
I can't wait on a dream I guess I'm gonna lick this after all

'Cause you can't have anything if you don't have
anything
and God I feel just fine
Now I wouldn't mind, no I wouldn't mind,
I wouldn't mind waking up tomorrow

Chad Everett Turnpike take me past Manchester down to Mass
I'm gonna lick this after all

'Cause you can't have anything if you don't have
anything
and God I feel just fine
For the pain that was caused and the ire that was lost,
I wouldn't mind waking up tomorrow

You been hit with another blow but still you give love
And you set our souls on fire

Now I wouldn't mind no I wouldn't mind
I wouldn't mind waking up tomorrow

'Cause you can't have anything if you don't have
anything
and God I feel just fine
For the pain that was cause and the iron that was lost
I wouldn't mind waking up I wouldn't mind waking up, I wouldn't mind waking up tomorrow
