People can you hear this
People can you hear each other
They want to make us soldiers
They want us to unnerve each other
Yeah

We speak in different dialects
They want us to forsake our sister
Their fashionable language
They want us all to fear our brother

Now the tie that binds must be stronger than what our differences allow
Seek the good in a passing wave, that is evolution,
yeah

People can you hear this
People can you hold each other
Can it be we're getting nearer
Don't let the cynics be your only cover now

The tie that binds must be stronger than what our differences allow
See the good in a passing wave, that is evolution, yeah

Ay ay ay
We'll surprise them all

'Cause I got the oil can
You got the stove pipe
He got the key stone
She got the block
But with a bit of mortar
We'll make a fine house
We wont look for where the one shoe dropped

But here come the foreman
He gonna shut us down
We'll take the long way
The long way around
We'll gather on the wall on the wrong side of town

And we'll surprise them all, surprise them
We'll surprise them, we'll surprise them all

So people can you hear this People don't you hurt each other
They want to make us soldiers
The innocent too long have suffered
Now the tie that binds must be strong, must be strong
See the good in the passing wave, that is evolution

Ay ay ay
We'll surprise them
Ay ay ay
We'll surprise them all
We'll surprise them all
