Glorify her smile
Condemn his frown

Choke on the phrases left unsaid
Silver bullets that pierce my ears
Shadows of demons melt my persona
Taken from the memory of the darkness lock

Can I walk amongst the slave chained to the hopeless and latched from your smile
Can I float upon your tears swealting the hate for our non-existence
Send the dove
Bring her a star
Throw me a raven
Spoon out my heart

With the last ounce of dignity
I will pray
Scream out
My mistakes to the heavens

Send the dove
Bring her a star
Throw me a raven
Spoon out my..
Spoon out my heart

Spoon out my heart
