

A Static Lullaby

"Always wonder"

I can still hear the rain outside
I can still hear thoes words, echoing through my mind, lying awake I think it through thinking of words to say to you.

but as you walk away from me (its not the way it has to
be)
and as you awaken from this dream (falling away;
come back to me)
after you break this broken heart,
I'll always wonder where you are,
where you are.

I wish that I could close my eyes,
and I could see you one last time,
that I could go to sleep each night,
knowing that you would be alright.

be)
and as you awaken from this dream (falling away;
come back to me)
after you break this broken heart,
I'll always wonder where you are,
where you are.

where you are.
